BOSTON, DECEMBER 10.

AT the Superior Court of Judicature, Court of Assize and General Goal Delivery now holden at Boston, for the County of Suffolk, came on the trial of eight Soldiers belonging to the 29th Regiment, who stood indicted for the murder of the several persons on the evening of the 5th of March last, by firing their guns in King-street: The examination of witnesses took up five days, the Council for the Crown and the Council for the prisoners held about two days: On Wednesday forenoon the honourable Court summoned up the case, which finished after one o'clock P. M. when the jury went out, and in about two hours brought in their verdict, two of the soldiers guilty of manslaughter, the other six, not guilty. The two former were recommitted to goal, and the six were discharged.

The expectation of a speedy war leads us to think of the present happy situation Britain is in with respect to the Colonies.——In former wars they were indebted to the affections and purses of Americans, for any necessary aids in men and money.—To procure the former they will now have the influence of commissioners, judges of admiralty, &c.—and for the latter, they have the whole American revenue to apply to without any controul from the people.

WILLIAMSBURG (in Virginia) December 20.

We learn from Norfolk, that last week they had the good fortune to detect a gang of thieves and housebreakers that have infested that borough and neighbourhood these many years past, to the unspeakable damage of the merchants and other people of property there. Several housebreakers, as well as negroes, are already committed, and warrants issued for apprehending of others. In the house of one of the persons committed, was found a great quantity of dry goods and wearing apparel, concealed under the plank of the chamber floor; and the steps of the stairs leading to the same, were very ingeniously converted into drawers, in which were found abundance of silver spoons, rings, ear-rings, and other articles of value, besides a large sum of money. The garret room had the appearance of a ware-house, being full of iron pots, blankets, rugs, loaves of sugar, and other bulky goods of various kinds.

Extract of a letter from from Boston, dated Dec. 24.

JANUARY 7.

On Monday evening, the last day of the year, the following dreadful and surprising accident, happened at a house in Division-street, in this city. One Hannah Bradshaw, who (on account of her large size, robust appearance, and bold behaviour) was commonly known by the name of Man of War Nance, [said to be about 30 years of age, has lived a dozen years or more in this city, was a healthy likely looking woman, remarkably industrious and neat in her person and manner of living,—but bore a bad character with respect to chastity and sobriety] living in an upper room, which had no communication with the rooms below, occupied by a family, on the evening of the 31st of December, she desired a young woman, who worked for her, and was going home, to come again early the next morning, and about 7 o'clock the same evening, another acquaintance of hers parted from her, at which time she seemed to have drank a little too freely. No person lived with her, and she was generally alone in her room, close shut. She was neither heard nor seen again till the next day, when the young woman came to work, who after knocking and calling, and having waited till past 11 o'clock, with the assistance of the man who lived below, she got through a back window into the room, and opened the door, when looking within a screen, which went quite a-cross the room, and was fitted to reach to the ceiling, she beheld the remains of the unhappy Hannah Bradshaw, the most shocking spectable imaginable. The body or rather the bones were lying near the middle of the floor, wherein a hole of about 4 feet diameter was burnt quite away and the bones lying on the ground, which was about a foot beneath that part of the floor,—the flesh was entirely burnt off the bones of the whole body and limbs, except a small part on the scull, a little on one of the shoulders, the lower part of the right leg and foot, which was burnt off at the small, almost as even as if cut off and left on the floor; the stocking burnt as far as the leg and no farther: The bones, some of which were black and others white, like a pipe stem, were so thoroughly burnt that they might be crumbled to dust between the fingers—the bowels remained unconsumed. One of the sleepers which lay under the shoulders was burnt almost through: Part of the head lay on the planks at the edge of the hole, and near it a candlestick with part of a candle in it, thrown down but did not appear to have touched the body, or to have set any thing on fire. The tallow was melted off the wick, which remained unscorched by the fire, as also the screen which almost touched the hole. The leg of a rush bottomed chair, and about half the bottom were burnt, so far as they were within the compass of the hole in the floor and no further. The cieling of the room, which was white-washed plaster, was as black as if covered with lampblack, as also part of the walls and windows, and the heat had been so great as to extract the turpentine from the boards of the wainscot,——after all these operations the fire went entirely out, so that when the body was found, not a spark remained.—It is certainly surprising, that with such an intense degree of heat, as was necessary so entirely to consume the floor, &c. with the body, and to calcine the bones, the fire should have stopped of itself without burning the house, or even scorching the screen—which is hardly conceivable, if the fire had blazed, and if it did not, it is equally inconceivable, that the heat should have been so intense. As there was a chimney in the room, and a cellar under part of the floor, with which the fire opened a communication, it could not have stopped for want of air. It is said the person who was last in company with this woman at parting, told her he should see her no more till another year, little thinking, as it was so near, that she should not live to see it, that she was then on the brink of eternity, and that before the morning light her soul would be required of her.

Friday last arrived here his Majesty's ship Mercury, from England.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Esq; Lieutenant-Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the said Province:

The humble ADDRESS of His Majesty's Council.

May it please your Honour,

WE His Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Council of this Province, return our warmest Thanks to your Honour for the Speech delivered Yesterday, to the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly.

The several important Points of civil Police recommended to our particular Attention, shall on our Parts, if possible, be ripened to happy Maturity: And we assure your Honour, that we entertain the most favourable Impressions of your watchful Care, and provident Conduct, for the Honour, Interest, and Welfare of this Province: And although your Honour has not comprehended this House in one Part of your Speech, respecting His Majesty's additional Instruction, from a Conviction, as we presume, that no particular Recommendation was necessary to be given us, on a Point which we first started, and repeatedly and steadily adhered to, yet we think it incumbent on this House, in order further to demonstrate their Firmness and unshaken Resolution, to assure your Honour, that we shall take effectual Care by our Negative, that no Money-Bill not agreeable to the Royal Instruction, which is calculated to prevent either Branch of the Legislature from assuming an unconstitutional Power, by diverting Public Money from those Uses for which it was granted, shall be presented to you for your Honour's Assent.

Permit us, Sir, most effectionately and gratefully to acknowledge, that under His Majesty's Royal and benign Auspices, we have all possible Encouragement to exert our Zeal for the Public Service, and by the same Royal Example, we cannot but be animated to the Pursuit of those Means, which are best calculated to promote the Public Good.

By Order of the House,

Yesterday put into this Port, the Sloop Sally, Walter Brooks, Master, from St. Christophers, bound for Maryland.

In Latitude 30. 30, Longitude 71. 30, on the 11th Instant, Capt. Wilson spoke with the Scooner Pompey, Jonathan Leeds Master, from New-London bound for Port-au-Prince, all then well on board; but had met with a hard Gale of Wind on the 3d, in Latitude 33. 57, Longitude 70. 22, by which they had lost 25 Horses and 13 Bundles of Hay.

Last Tuesday the Le Despencer Packet-Boat, Capt. Talbot, sailed with His Majesty's Mails for Falmouth. As did Capt. Terence McDonogh, in the Scooner Liberty, hereafter to be called the Comet, with the Mails for Jamaica and Pensacola.

At the Court of General Sessions of the Peace, Oyer and Terminer, Assize, and General Goal Delivery, holden here last Week, of 23 Bills of Indictment delivered out to the Grand Jury, 19 were found True Bills: And the Petit Jury found the following Persons Guilty, viz.

1. Joseph Jordan, of stealing a Scooner.
2. Thomas Dannails,
3. Edmund James, } of stealing Negroes.
4. John Velasti, of Horse-stealing.
5. Frances Patty,
6. Robert Hardle, } of Petit-Larceny.
7. William Setter White, of killing a Negro.
8. William Dunn, of killing a Negro in the Heat of Passion. And nine of Assaults.—The Grand Jury, having made their Presentments on Saturday, were then discharged; and the Court was adjourned to this Day.——At the Adjournment this Day, Jordan, Dannails, and James, were sentenced to be hanged on Friday the 15th of February next; Velasti, to lose his right Ear, and receive 29 Lashes at the Corner of the State House on Tuesday next; White, to pay a Fine of Seven Hundred Pounds; and Dunn, Three Hundred and Fifty Pounds; Patty, to receive 39 Lashes at the State-House; and Hardle, the like Number, at the four usual Corners, on Tuesday next the 5th of February.——Those who had been convicted of Assaults, were severally fined.

Yesterday Morning we had a violent Gale of Wind here from N. to E. S. E. which did considerable Damage to the small Craft, and some to other Vessels; but 'tis feared has done more on the Coast. Three or four Scooners with Wood and Rice were sunk. The Tide was the highest we had seen since the Hurricane in 1752.

A VERY valuable PLANTATION on Combahee-River, about sixty Miles from Charles-Town, containing 1732 Acres of Land.—Five Hundred Acres of which are River Swamp; 240 Acres are Part of the Savanna, known by the Name of Green Savanna; 70 Acres are Tupelo Swamp, and the Remainder good Provision and Timber Land.—The River Swamp is allowed by good Judges to be equal in Quality to any in the Province: It may be flowed from the River every Spring Tide, and is entirely out of the Way of both the Freshes and Salts, being never affected by either: One Hundred and Seventy Acres of it are cleared; 125 of which are dammed in.—The Savanna and Tupelo Swamps, which are adjoining, are of an excellent Soil, and by Means of a large Canal, which has been dug for that Purpose, may be drained, and watered from the River; which renders them equal, if not superior, to River Swamp. There is every necessary and convenient Building on it, in particular, a large and commodious Barn and Machine-House just finished, built entirely of the best of Cypress, and about 200 Yards from a Landing, to which a Vessel of 200 Tons may lay her Side. As the Sale will be late in the Season, the Subscriber will have the Land prepared, the Provisions planted, and every Thing in the same Forwardness as he should for himself, in order to enable the Purchaser to plant the ensuing Crop.

A PLANTATION on James Island, containing six Hundred and Twenty-nine Acres of Land, situate on Stono River, at the Northern Extremity of the Island: The Land is equal to any on that Island, and is so well-known for its Pleasantness and Conveniency to the Charles-Town Market, that it needs no Description.

An ISLAND in Ashepoo-River, a little above Bennet's Point, consisting of six Hundred Acres of high Land and several Thousand Acres of hard Marsh.—It is an excellent Range for Cattle, sufficient to maintain 5 or 600 Head: The high Land is also very good for Corn or Indico, and has several good Landings on it.

A L S O,

FIFTY valuable SLAVES; amongst which are two Carpenters, two Coopers, a complete House-Wench, a good Seamstress, Sawyers, Boatmen, handy Boys and Girls, &c.—Forty of them are Country born, and but four amongst the Whole whose Ages exceed Thirty-five Years.

The Purchasers of the Land may have three or four Years Credit, paying Interest, and giving approved Security; and the Purchasers of the Negroes twelve Months Credit, complying with the above Conditions.

Any Person inclinable in the mean Time to purchase the Whole or any Part of the Premises, at private Sale, may apply to RICHARD HUTSON.

CHARLES-TOWN, JANUARY 31.

ON Friday laſt the following Addreſs was preſented to His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, in Anſwer to His Speech, delivered to the General Aſſembly at the Opening of the Seſſion on the 16th Inſtant.

To the Honourable WILLIAM BULL, Eſq; Lieutenant-Governor, and Commander in Chief, in and over His Majeſty's Province of SOUTH-CAROLINA.

The humble ADDRESS of the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly of the ſaid Province:

May it pleaſe your Honour,

WE His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons Houſe of Aſſembly, beg Leave to return our Thanks to your Honour for your Speech delivered to us in General Aſſembly, on Wedneſday the 16th Inſtant.

The Danger to which this Town was lately expoſed, was truly alarming; it ſhould rouſe every Member of the Community, to exert his utmoſt Abilities for preventing ſuch dreadful Deva[illegible] as we were threatened with; it ſhould reſtrain every Well-Wiſher to his Country, from violating the wholeſome Laws of this Province, for preventing that Danger: But we lament, that notwithſtanding the wiſe Proviſions made in ſuch Laws; notwithſtanding our late providential Eſcape from the Fire, which broke out in a Houſe built, contrary to Law, on one of the Wharfs—we now ſee other Wooden Buildings raiſed on the very Spot, where the Flames lately raged: However, though it appears, that our Danger ariſes, rather from Neglect in the Execution, than from Defect in the Laws, yet your Honour may be aſſured, that we ſhall reviſe the Laws for Prevention of Fire, and that nothing, on our Part, ſhall be wanting to put a Stop to the Evils complained of.

We ſhall, without Delay, conſider of proper Methods to regulate the Mooring of Ships, and the Expediency of appointing a Harbour-Maſter, and whatever may be neceſſary to render the Beacon, near the Bar of Charles-Town, more uſeful.

The eſtabliſhing Seminaries of Learning in ſeveral Parts of this Province, as well as increaſing and improving our ſtaple Commodities and Manufactures, are Objects which we muſt always have in View.—Truly ſorry are we, that our Endeavours to promote thoſe good Purpoſes have been fruitleſs; but we are not yet totally diſcouraged—we will again take them into Conſideration.

We are ſenſible of the moſt ruinous State of our Fortifications, and conſequently, the very defenceleſs Situation of this Town; and therefore, ſhall inſert a Sum of Money in the Schedule to the next Tax-Bill for repairing the Batteries neceſſary to defend this Town and Harbour.

We are very ſorry that the Expences of Government, and the Public Debts, have been ſo long unprovided for.—Your Honour cannot but know, that the Houſe of Aſſembly have done their Duty; they have paſſed Tax-Bills in the uſual Form, effectually to anſwer theſe Purpoſes, which were rejected by the Council: Therefore the Delay cannot be imputed to this Houſe.—So anxious are we to do Juſtice in this Matter, that paſſing by the Conſideration of the needleſs Trouble and Expence attending the frequent Interruption of the Public Buſineſs, and the outrageous Behaviour of the Council, we are again ready to take up that Matter, and to make neceſſary Proviſion for the Expences of Government, and the Payment of the Public Debts, by a Bill in the uſual Form.

Your Honour will excuſe our differing totally from your Opinion of the additional Inſtruction.—We cannot but think it as unneceſſary, as it is unconſtitutional.—We did not want to be told, that Monies raiſed by Law, ſhould be limited by expreſs Words, and not by Implication, to the Purpoſes for which they were raiſed—common Senſe was ſufficient to inform us of that: —Such a Clauſe never is left out of a Money-Bill; the laſt Clauſe of every Tax-Act is added for that very Purpoſe; and the Inſtruction is therefore manifeſtly founded on Miſtake or Miſinformation.—His Majeſty's Miniſters are fallible as well as other Men, and like them are ſubject to Errors; nay, from their high Rank, are, perhaps, of all Men moſt ſubject to Miſinformation; and we will undertake to prove, that Inſtructions have been ſent to ſeveral of the American Governors, which were diametrically oppoſite to Reaſon, Law, and the Conſtitution of the Colonies they were ſent to—and which, conſequently, were not carried into Execution.

Your Honour tells us, you ſhall pay a moſt ſtrict Obedience to your Inſtruction: We thank you for the Frankneſs and Candour of his Declaration.—Permit us, Sir, following your Honour's Example, with the ſame Openneſs to declare, that your Honour cannot be more devoted to the Will of the Miniſter, than this Houſe is to their Duty to their moſt gracious Sovereign, and to the Intereſt, Rights and Privileges of their Conſtituents: That they look upon the ſole and abſolute framing and modelling of Money-Bills, to be one of the moſt eſſential and indefenſable of theſe Rights; and that they could not ſuffer the Interpoſition of any Perſon or Power whatſoever, in that Matter, without baſely betraying the Truſt repoſed in them by the People, and conſequently injuring the Intereſt of His Majeſty, who has, in a Manner becoming a Prince of the Houſe of Brunſwick, declared, that he has no Intereſt, he can have none, diſtinct from his People: A Declaration founded on Law and Reaſon, claiming our moſt grateful Acknowledgments, and manifeſting a Diſpoſition in His Majeſty, of which we hope, in Time, to enjoy the happy Effects.

By Order of the Houſe,
PETER MANIGAULT, Speaker.
Commons Houſe of Aſſembly,
3d Day of January, 1771.

His Honour's ANSWER.

Mr. Speaker, and Gentlemen,

THE Delay of the uſual Ceremony of returning an Addreſs of Thanks, for the Speech delivered at the opening of the Seſſion, for eight Days, carries ſuch an Appearance of Slight and Diſreſpect, that I cannot, in Honour to the Station in which I at preſent ſtand, forbear taking Notice thereof, while I am perſuaded it is unprecedented, as I am conſcious of its being undeſerved.

The Aſſurances you give me, that you will conſider of proper Methods to ſecure Charles-Town againſt Fire, to regulate the Shipping, to promote Learning, and increaſe our ſtaple Commodities, are very pleaſing to me: But when you acquaint me, that you will put a Sum into the next Tax-Bill for repairing the Fortifications of this Town, and make Proviſion for the Expences of Government, and pay the Public Debts, in the uſual Form, after you have declared, that it is not in my Power to give my Aſſent to ſuch a Bill, I have no Hopes, in our alarming Situation, that the proper Defence of this Town can be affected, the Demands of the Publick Creditors paid, more eſpecially the Neceſſities of ſome of the poorer relieved, and the Public Credit maintained.

The unexpected Expreſſion you make uſe of, in your Anſwer to that Part of my Speech in which I aſſure you, that I ſhall pay a moſt ſtrict Obedience to the Royal Inſtruction, "that I cannot be more devoted to the Will of the Miniſter, than your Houſe is to their Duty to our moſt gracious Sovereign," is intended to convey a Meaning very invidious towards me, and honourable to yourſelves too obvious to need Explanation, but with what Effect, muſt be ſubmitted to the Opinion of others, who are fully acquainted with me, and have a right to judge of our Behaviour, and can diſcern the Tendency and Objects of our Devotions.

I ſhall not enter further into a Field of diſcuſſing other Matters contained in your Addreſs, but I could not in Juſtice to myſelf ſay leſs. Upon the whole, you may be aſſured, that in every Meaſure which you may propoſe, that tends to promote the Service of the King and the Province, which can never be diſtinct, you may always depend upon my ready Concurrence.

Laſt Saturday the Diligence Packet-Boat, Captain Arthur Clark, ſailed with His Majeſty's Mails for Jamaica and Penſacola.

The Broughton-Iſland Packet, Capt. Bachop, which ſailed from hence laſt Tueſday, has on board Capt. Croſton's Company of His Majeſty's 31ſt Regiment, lately arrived here from Penſacola, to be landed at St. Auguſtine.

From Porto-Rico we learn, that about the 14th of laſt Month, 14 Tranſports arrived there with two Regiments from Spain, which with two that were there before, and one of Militia, make five Regiments now on that Iſland; and great Augmentations were making to the Fortifications, but more particularly to thoſe at the Port of St. Juan's.

We hear by a Perſon over Land from North-Carolina, that near one half of the Front of the Town of Wilmington was lately burnt down by Accident.

We are told, that for Twenty Shillings each Perſon, may be ſeen, next Door to Daniel Horry, Eſq; and oppoſite to Mr. Lambton's, the upper End of Broad-Street, ſeveral curious

FIGURES in WAX-WORK,

as large as the Life, and admirably well executed; amongſt them, one of that late eminent Preacher

The Rev. Mr. GEORGE WHITEFIELD;

And another, of thn celebrated American Patriot,

Commonly called the Pennſylvania Farmer.

But, what may moſt excite Admiration, is, that they are entirely the Work of an ingenious Lady who exhibits them, that was born in America, and has never been out of it for Improvement.

A PLANTATION, or TRACT of LAND, containing Two Hundred and Seven Acres (more or less) situate and lying in ST.
